Attendees: Clerk J Wallis. One member of the public.

01.15.10.24 Apologies

Cllr Wallis, accepted.

02.15.10.24 Declarations of Interest

None Declared

One member of the public with an interest in the planning application to be discussed spoke about the application and why he was now applying for permission. He answered some brief questions from the council before the meeting proceeded. 03.15.10.24 Chairmans Introduction

A short presentation was heard from the chair giving the rationale for the meeting and why it could not be decided without a council meeting. Chair discussed the five options open for voting regarding the application.

04.15.10.24 Planning matters

PL/2024/07585 – Cherry tree House, High Street, Fovant, SP3 5JL – Installation of gates (retrospective planning application)

The council fully discussed the application with a view to other properties in the village who also had gates, and the comments posted on the application by the Highways representative with some disagreement with the response to the comments.

Chair discussed a potential response in comments to the highway's comments.

Voting on response to the application, full council agreement to respond 'no objection'

Voting on whether to respond with comments to the highway's comments five for a response, two against a response.

Those in favour of a response win the vote, those in favour agreed to adopt the comments compiled by the chair.

Outcome: clerk to respond 'no objection' to the application and add in the comments agreed by the majority of the meeting

Meeting concluded at 19:45hrs.
